What are the power supplies for island communication base stations

Overview

Telecom batteries for base stations are backup power systems using valve-regulated lead-acid (VRLA) or lithium-ion batteries. They ensure uninterrupted connectivity during grid failures by storing energy and discharging it when needed. When natural disasters cut off power grids, when extreme weather threatens power supply safety, our communication backup power system with intelligent charge/discharge management and military-grade protection becomes the "second lifeline" for base station equipment. 45V output meets RRU equipment. Telecom power supply systems form the backbone of modern telecommunications.
